- 16.2 In the event that either Party is in breach of Clause 16.1 above then the Party in breach shall pay to the other a one-off recruitment fee of 20% of the individual's basic annual salary, or in the case of a temporary engagement 25% of the contract fees payable to the individual so employed or engaged. Such fee is intended to enable the non-breaching Party to recruit a replacement for this individual and as such the non-breaching Party reserves the right to amend the fees if appropriate and will provide documentary evidence to back up such fee amendment. This provision shall be without prejudice to either Party's ability to seek injunctive relief.
- 16.3 The Parties hereby acknowledge and agree that the formula specified in Clause 16.2 above is a reasonable estimate of the loss which would be incurred by the loss of the person so employed or engaged.

17. ANTI-BRIBERY

- 17.1 Each Party shall comply with all Applicable Laws, regulations and sanctions relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption, including the Bribery Act 2010; and promptly report to the other Party any request or demand for any undue financial or other advantage of any kind received by that Party in connection with the performance of this Agreement.
- 17.2 For the purpose of this Clause 17, the meaning of adequate procedures and foreign public official and whether a person is associated with another person shall be determined in accordance with section 7(2) of the Bribery Act 2010 (and any guidance issued under section 9 of that Act), section 6(5) and (6) of that Act and section 8 of that Act respectively. For the purposes of this Clause 17 a person associated with Ultima includes any subcontractor of Ultima.

18. GENERAL

WAIVER

- 18.1 No failure or delay by a Party to exercise any right or remedy provided under this Agreement or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

SEVERANCE

- 18.2 If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of this Agreement (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected.

18.13 Ultima shall have no liability to the Customer under this Agreement if Ultima is prevented from, or delayed in, performing its obligations under this Agreement, or from carrying on its business, by acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond its reasonable control except to the extent that Ultima could reasonably have avoided such circumstances by fulfilling its obligations in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or otherwise exercising the level of diligence that could reasonably have been expected of it (having exercised Good Industry Practice), including strikes, computer viruses and malware, pandemics, epidemics, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (excluding any industrial disputes involving the workforce of Ultima), act of God, war, riot, civil commotion, compliance with any law or regulation, fire, flood or storm (each a Force Majeure Event), provided that the Customer is notified of such an event and its expected duration and Ultima uses reasonable endeavours to mitigate, overcome or minimise the effects of the Force Majeure Event concerned. If the period of delay or non-performance continues for eight (8) weeks or more, this Agreement may be terminated on fourteen (14) days' written notice solely in respect of the Services element provided by Ultima (or on its behalf). Customers licences to the Products will still continue and any termination of this Agreement for Force Majeure shall, for the avoidance of doubt, remain subject to clause 11.2.

SCHEDULE 1- DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

- 1.1 For the purposes of this Schedule 1, the terms controller, processor, data subject, personal data, personal data breach and processing shall have the meaning given to them in the UK Data Protection Legislation.
- 1.2 Both Parties will comply with all applicable requirements of Applicable Data Protection Laws. This Schedule 1 is in addition to, and does not relieve, remove or replace, a party's obligations or rights under Applicable Data Protection Laws.
- 1.3 The Parties have determined that, for the purposes of Applicable Data Protection Laws, Ultima shall process the personal data set out in Annex 1 as a processor on behalf of the Customer.
- 1.4 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 1.2, the Customer will ensure that it has all necessary appropriate consents and notices in place to enable lawful transfer of the Customer Personal Data to Ultima for the duration and purposes of this Agreement.
- 1.5 In relation to the Customer Personal Data the scope, nature and purpose of processing by Ultima, the duration of the processing and the types of personal data and categories of data subject are set out in Annex 1.
- 1.6 Without prejudice to the generality of clauses 1.1 and 1.2 Ultima shall, in relation to Customer Personal Data:
 - (a) process that Customer Personal Data only on the documented instructions of the Customer, unless Ultima is required by Applicable Data Protection Laws to otherwise process that Customer Personal Data. Where Ultima is relying on Applicable Data Protection Laws as the basis for processing Customer Personal Data, Ultima shall notify the Customer of this before performing the processing required by the Applicable Data Protection Laws unless those Applicable Data Protection Laws prohibit Ultima from so notifying the Customer on important grounds of public interest. Ultima shall inform the Customer if, in the opinion of Ultima, the instructions of the Customer infringe Applicable Data Protection Laws;
 - (b) implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of Customer Personal Data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, Customer Personal Data, which the Customer has reviewed and confirms are appropriate to the harm that might result from the unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage and the nature of the data to be protected, having regard to the state of technological development and the cost of implementing any measures;
 - (c) ensure that any personnel engaged and authorised by Ultima to process Customer Personal Data have committed themselves to confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory or common law obligation of confidentiality;
 - (d) assist the Customer insofar as this is possible (taking into account the nature of the processing and the information available to Ultima), and at the Customer's cost and written request, in responding to any request from a data subject and in ensuring the Customer's compliance with its obligations under Applicable Data Protection Laws with respect to security, breach notifications, impact assessments and consultations with supervisory authorities or regulators;
 - (e) notify the Customer without undue delay on becoming aware of a personal data breach involving the Customer Personal Data;
 - (f) at the written direction of the Customer, delete or return Customer Personal Data and copies thereof to the Customer on termination of the Agreement unless Ultima is required by Applicable Data Protection Law to continue to process that Customer Personal Data. For the purposes of this clause 1.6(f) Customer Personal Data shall be considered deleted where it is put beyond further use by Ultima; and
 - (g) maintain records to demonstrate its compliance with this Schedule 1 and allow for reasonable audits by the Customer or the Customer's designated auditor, for this purpose, on reasonable written notice (at least 4 weeks) and in accordance with Ultima's Information Security Management System. Audits of compliance with data protection obligations are limited to once per year unless the Customer has a genuine reason to believe that Ultima is in material breach of this Schedule 1 or can demonstrate that it requires copies of applicable documentation in order to comply with Applicable Data Protection Laws or the requirements of the Commissioner or other applicable regulatory authority. In such case the Customer shall act reasonably in relation to any audit request, and in a manner which results in the minimum of inconvenience to Ultima.
- 1.7 The Customer hereby provides its prior, general authorisation for Ultima to:
 - (a) appoint processors to process the Customer Personal Data, provided that Ultima:
 - (i) shall ensure that the terms on which it appoints such processors comply with Applicable Data Protection Laws, and are consistent with the obligations imposed on Ultima in this Schedule 1;

Ultima Business Solutions Limited
CSP Agreement (Essentials and Managed Cloud) - standalone

- (ii) shall remain responsible for the acts and omission of any such processor as if they were the acts and omissions of Ultima; and
 - (iii) shall inform the Customer of any intended changes concerning the addition or replacement of the processors, thereby giving the Customer the opportunity to object to such changes provided that if the Customer objects to the changes and cannot demonstrate, to Ultima's reasonable satisfaction, that the objection is due to an actual or likely breach of Applicable Data Protection Law, the Customer shall indemnify Ultima for any losses, damages, costs (including legal fees) and expenses suffered by Ultima in accommodating the objection;
- (b) transfer Customer Personal Data outside of the UK as required for the Purpose, provided that Ultima shall ensure that all such transfers are effected in accordance with Applicable Data Protection Laws. For these purposes, the Customer shall promptly comply with any reasonable request of Ultima, including any request to enter into standard data protection clauses adopted by the EU Commission from time to time (where the EU GDPR applies to the transfer) or adopted by the Commissioner from time to time (where the UK Data Protection Legislation applies to the transfer).
